

BE UNIQUE.
BE YOU.

Cookie Booth Etiquette

What is a cookie booth?

▶▶ A cookie booth is set up by the Council or Service Unit to sell Girl Scout cookies directly to customers who were not solicited during door-to-door sales.

What's at a booth?

- ▶▶ Girls smiling and making eye contact with customers
- ▶▶ Posters showing troop's Girl Scout Cookie goal
- ▶▶ Sign depicting how much Girl Scout cookies are selling for
- ▶▶ Table is neat and clean with cookie varieties on display
- ▶▶ No more than four girls and
- ▶▶ two adults. NO ADULT
- ▶▶ ONLY BOOTHS.

Do

Remember that I am a representative of Girl Scouts and that my behavior at Cookie Booths reflects on all of Girl Scouting

Use my resources wisely by removing empty boxes and recycle if possible

Be polite and friendly

Keep table and area neat

Say THANK YOU to all customers

Stay out of the doorways and walkways (stay behind the table)

Do

Be knowledgeable about the Girl Scout Cookie Program

Know what my troop will do with troop proceeds

Be identifiable as a Girl Scout by wearing a membership Pin, official uniform, tunic, sash or vest, or other Girl Scout clothing.

Dress appropriately for the weather

Respect each retailer's policy regarding cookie booth procedures

Girl Scout Cookie
CARAVAN

Don't

- ▶▶ Get in the way of the business customers
- ▶▶ Ask a customer more than once to purchase Girl Scout cookies
- ▶▶ Go into the place of business while at a cookie booth (unless accompanied by an adult)
- ▶▶ Talk loudly or run around
- ▶▶ Chew gum, eat or drink while at a cookie booth
- ▶▶ Leave trash behind

QUESTIONS OR COMMENTS?

Girl Scout
COOKIE BOOTH

