

Lead a Girl Scout Troop!

Any adult, age 18+, who completes onboarding, can be a troop leader as long as she or he wants to make a difference in girls' lives. You don't have to be a parent—all are welcome!

Troop leaders lead activities, organize field trips, help girls earn badges, support girls in running a business (Girl Scout Cookie Program), serve as positive role models, and more.

Girl Scouts offers a variety of comprehensive training experiences from in-person workshops to online webinars. Every leader is partnered with a volunteer Service Unit team to guide them.

Who
can be a troop leader?

Why
should I be a troop leader?

What
do troop
leaders do?

What
is the time
commitment?

How
will I receive training?

Being a troop leader is incredibly rewarding. You will help girls grow into confident leaders, as you both gain new skills and experiences. There are girls on waiting lists who need a troop leader. Help ensure every girl who wants to be a Girl Scout can be!

The troop leader decides how often meetings take place. Most troops meet every other week for 1-1.5 hours, but some meet monthly, after school, or on weekends. Many troop leaders have full-time jobs. The commitment is really up to the troop's interest and schedule.
