Girls Can Change the World

HISTORY

First launched in 1993, Women of Distinction is a unique event that celebrates and honors the outstanding accomplishments local women have achieved through family, career, and community service.

Each year, our council calls upon the public to identify women who exemplify excellence in service, leadership, community visibility, and professionalism. Honorees are chosen based on five criteria: strength as a girl role model, community/professional leadership, community service, ability to leverage support for Girl Scouts and community visibility.

The achievements and visibility of our honorees set a powerful example for girls and young women in the Midlands and across our 22-county service area.

JOIN OUR CELEBRATION! For over 100 years, Girl Scouts has prepared girls to empower themselves and become the change they want to see in the world. This is our single mission.
