What We Do

Girl Scouts bring their dreams to life and work together to build a better world. Through our programs from coast to coast, Girl Scouts of all backgrounds and abilities can be unapologetically themselves as they discover their strengths and rise to meet new challenges—whether they want to climb to the top of a tree or the top of their class, lace up their boots for a hike or advocate for climate justice, or make their first best friends. Backed by trusted adult volunteers, mentors, and millions of alums, Girl Scouts lead the way as they find their voices and make changes that affect the issues most important to them.

How We Do It

The inclusive, all-female environment of a Girl Scout troop creates a safe space where girls can try new things, develop a range of skills, take on leadership roles, and just be themselves. Girl Scouts take the potential of girls, combines it with robust skill building programming, and adds caring adult mentors and strong female role models.

What Our Staff is Saying...

“I feel respected by everyone I work with.”

“The compassion, concern, understanding, and intelligence is great, and I enjoy working under such a wonderful leadership.”

“The leadership team is supportive of growth, and my supervisor provides plenty of opportunities for me to learn.”

“I have the luck of doing and learning new things all the time.”

“I would love to work here for a long time to come.”

Girl Scouting is more than a program.
It's in her DNA.

See what some of our Girl Scouts are saying about what our organization means to them.

“Since I’ve been in Girl Scouts, it’s been really easy to make friends because I feel safe with people I knew would be nice and a good friend.”

“There’s so many opportunities: I’ve flown an airplane with Girl Scouts; I’ve rode horses with Girl Scouts; I’ve traveled with Girl Scouts!”

“We always do a bunch of nature stuff, which I don’t normally get to do, so it’s really fun to go outside and hang out with my friends.”

“I get to hang out with my friends a lot.”
